Directors' Notes:

Kristen Glowa — Director

What a lot of fun it's been playing in the bathroom with these crazy, amazing people! I have been so blessed with this incredible cast and crew that I have had a comparably easy time of it as director. It's been an interesting challenge to bring this show to life: any play with a one-room set has to gain in character development and plot movement where it lacks in scene changes, especially when that room is an everyday bathroom (thankfully, not all "movements" are depicted!). I hope you enjoy the parade of characters that brighten up Russ and Lucille's upstairs "powder room", one crazy night at a party. I also hope you enjoy the refreshments available to you this evening, and perhaps feel just a bit like you're at that crazy party yourself.

Daria Turner— Assistant Director
aka—Ass Director

When Kristen asked me to assistant direct this production (otherwise known as the Ass Director), how could I refuse? As an opinionated high schooler with a passion for the dramatic - just imagine me in class! - the opportunity to order people around and work with some of the best people I know was enough encouragement. And that was before getting our brilliant cast! Over two and a half months, I have had the great privilege of witnessing the fabulous Kyra's return to the stage, Ian's astounding flexibility and comic timing, the ever-lovely Phyllis's lingerie collection, Marko showing off his neurotic side, Kyle playing yet another sleazebag smoker, first-timer Hilary learning to let loose, always entertaining Jeremy shake his booty, and the great John jump into his role half-way through the production. And that doesn't even include the many inspiring crew members (Deb, Amanda...) without whom there would be nothing in front of you tonight. So sit back, and enjoy the party!
