

Leading Ladies

song loosely to the tune of Rockin' Robin
by Phyllis & Anne

Karen's at the helm and Ike's by her side
They'll direct us and boss us and be our guide
Kassandra's backstage with her great crew
They cue us and prop us – they know what to do

For...

Chorus:      Leading Ladies      whee whee whee
                 Leading Ladies      miss iss ippi
                 We're in Leading Ladies and we're gonna have fun tonight      met moyer

Karen picked a script that's really great
But the high school said they had no open date
So we took March, it didn't seem too long
But we've rehearsed and rehearsed for 5 MONTHS LONG!!

Chorus:      Leading Ladies      whee whee whee
                 Leading Ladies      miss iss ippi
                 We're in Leading Ladies and we're gonna have fun tonight      met moyer

Kristen, Nancy and Phyll are getting lean
Marko's buying high heels – size 14
On stage is Pia, Jazzy AND Daria
But where is Nancy – she's got pneumonia

Marion's on the prowl – food's in the wrong place
She doesn't know it's her birthday cake
Phyll slipped on her skates, the bruise isn't history
But it's better than the blackness of crotchal mystery

Chorus:      Leading Ladies      whee whee whee
                 Leading Ladies      miss iss ippi
                 We're in Leading Ladies and we're gonna have fun tonight      met moyer

Doc's belly keeps growing every day
While Butch's pink legs are wasting away
Jer & Marko seem to like their long hair
But WHY WON'T THEY WEAR UNDERWEAR????

The antlers or railing fall off again
Chris is always there to pitch right in Janet and Kathy like to dress the boys
Paulla & Hilary find us the right toys

Chorus:      Leading Ladies      whee whee whee
                 Leading Ladies      miss iss ippi
                 We're in Leading Ladies and we're gonna have fun tonight      met moyer

Phyllis is the best roller skater in York
Why does her truck smell like pulled pork?
Kristen changed costume 7 times each night
Whitney made sure her curls stayed tight

Florence is a grouch but rich as Crises
Pia stuffed towels in the right places
Julie chose the costumes and made them fit
For the lads, she added some extra bits

We sold a lot of tickets – which is really great
'Specially after spending so much money on paint
Together we've made a spectacular show
And now we're sad and we have to go
