

Someday you know it'll all burn down

Edna's solo (and all other verses you don't sing) first chorus scientists verse

move to the music
locals' do some chicken dancing, fighting...

Things are heating up at the Byeways tonight And arguments are on the rise love will smolder and lovers will shoulder the burden of truth or lies If these walls could talk the whole place could burn down and someday that just might be Should these walls talk the flames'll get real hot and burn a little history grape vine right with heel grape vine lft with heel step forward rt,lft,rt, tap lft/shake shoulders step back rt,lft,rt,tap lft tap rt heel/slap thigh 4x tap lft heel/slap thigh 4x keep bending knees, gesture walls, fan self wave hands

bushie mens verse bushie womens verse bushie women gather together to chat women move in towards men, flirt, etc.

last chorus

for reprise, head table people will be standing on their chairs (can put a foot up on the table if you want) and everyone else will be tightly gathered in front of the head table, one level down and the floor in front end with arms stretched out (lft in front, rt up)
