

Someday It Will All Burn Down (Show Closing)

Dan and Jane Vachon

Waitress:

Now for 29 years I've been serving you drinks
And hope to be for 29 more
So make sure you get on back & I promise
When you open up that door
You'll feel at home, right at home
Sit and have a brew or two
Cause it's on the highway that good ol' byeways
Will always be waiting for you.
Cause it's on the highway that good ol' byeways
Will always be waiting for you.

CHORUS REPEAT 3 X

Things are heating up at the byways tonight
And Arguments are on the rise
Love will smoulder and lovers will shoulder
The burden of truth or lies
If these walls could talk the whole place could burn down
And someday that just might be
Should these walls talk the flames will get real hot
And burn a little his - tor - ee
